

Secret Agent X-9 (Library of American Comics)

When Secret Agent X-9 premiered in January 1934, King Features could proudly boast that its new adventure strip was written by the worlds most famous mystery writer Dashiell Hammett, the man who virtually invented the hard-boiled detective in such novels as The Maltese Falcon, The Thin Man, and Red Harvest. The artist chosen was less well-known at this point, Alex Raymond was merely an uncredited assistant on Tim Tylers Luck and the humor strip Blondie but 1934 was the turning point in Raymonds career. From that cold January forward, Alex Raymond would become as famous as Hammett, thanks to his Sunday comics double-header, Flash Gordon and Jungle Jim. The Secret Agent X-9 strip was a dailies-only serial. This volume collects the complete Hammett/Raymond strips, plus the subsequent stories by Raymond and Leslie Charteris, famous himself for The Saint novels, as well as the Charteris stories drawn by Charles Flanders. Included are strips from January 22, 1934 through October 31, 1936.
