

FROM RUSSIA WITH LOVE: JAMES BOND 007 MOVIE POSTER BOOK, VOL. 2: Movie Posters, Lobby Cards And Movie Stills From Around The World (JAMES BOND 007 MOVIE POSTER BOOKS)

OVER 100 POSTERS, LOBBY CARDS AND MOVIE STILL.S.FROM AROUND THE WORLD FROM RUSSIA WITH LOVE (1963) FROM RUSSIA WITH LOVE, the second in the series of James Bond films, is the film that solidifies all the Bond film elements into a formula -- the action sequences are intensified and lend greater tension to the proceedings; John Barrys inimitable score makes its first appearance; and Sean Connery as Bond has nailed down his role as 007 -- accentuating Bonds stylishness and sophistication, while toning down his cold-bloodedness. In From Russia With Love, the bad guys dont want to take over the world. They want something more mundane -- a Russian decoding device. Assigned to the mission of stealing the decoding device are No. 3, former KGB agent Rosa Klebb (Lotte Leya), and No. 5, Kronsteen, an expert chess player who has plotted every move of the mission. Kronsteens plan requires using Bonds weakness for women as an element in acquiring the decoding device. Once Bond obtains the decoding device from Russian cipher clerk Tatiana Romanova, SPECTRE muscleman Red Grant (Robert Shaw) is to forcibly take it from Bond and kill him. But Bond suspects a trap. Being Bond, however, he cant resist the lure of a beautiful woman. So, flaunting danger, Bond travels to Istanbul to meet Tatiana. The centerpiece of this 007 feature is the thrilling fight to the death between Bond and enemy agent Red Grant aboard the Orient Express.
