

The Making of Henry

Man Booker Prize Winning Author of THE FINKLER QUESTIONS swathed in his kimono, drinking tea from his samovar, Henry Nagle is temperamentally opposed to life in the 21st century. Preferring not to contemplate the great intellectual and worldly success of his best boyhood friend, he argues constantly with his father, an upholsterer turned fire-eater and now dead for many years. When he goes out at all, Henry goes after other mens wives. But when he mysteriously inherits a sumptuous apartment, Henrys life changes, bringing on a slick descendant of Robert Louis Stevenson, an excitable red setter, and a wise-cracking waitress with a taste for danger. All of them demand his attention, even his love, a word which barely exists in Henrys magisterial vocabulary, never mind his heart. From one of Englands most highly regarded writers, The Making of Henry is a ravishing novel, at once wise, tender and mordantly funny. From the Trade Paperback edition.
