

Terminal Beach

The Terminal Beach is one of Ballard's most brilliant collections of short stories, ranging from the title story's disturbing picture of an abandoned atomic testing island in the Pacific to the shocking Oedipal fantasy of The Gioconda of the Twilight Noon. At the heart of the stories lies the bitter paradox that the extraordinary creative power of man's imagination is matched only by his reckless instinct for destruction. One of the few genuine surrealists this country has produced, the possessor of a terrifying and exhilarating imagination - and a national treasure Guardian
